Our Vision Statement

Kingston Interfaith Network celebrates the commonality and diversity of our spiritual communities by:

- encouraging understanding and respect between peoples of all faiths and cultures
- affirming spiritual and religious freedom
- working towards peace, compassion, and equality within our local community.

Fulfilling Our Vision

The Network shares and engages with the community by being involved in:

- celebrations
- events
- gatherings
- conversations
- learning and education
- community consultations and representation.
